Appeal from the United States District Court

USDC No. 3:23-CV-2875

To: Brian P. Carr

As a non-incarcerated pro se litigant in this appeal, you have been GRANTED Filing User status, allowing you to file documents electronically. During the course of the litigation, you have abused the system by failure to comply with the electronic rules and standards. This type of abuse reduces the efficiency of the court's electronic filing system and justifies termination of the privilege of Filing User status. Therefore, pursuant to 5TH CIR. R. 25.2.3, your status as a Filing User is terminated as of the date of this order. All future filings and service on other parties must be by paper copy or through the pro se email address provided by this court, and in accordance with the provisions of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure.
