Re: Freedom of Information Act Appeal No. 2025-APP-00110
FOIA Case No. 2025-FPRO-01666

Dear Officer Carr:

This is in response to your email dated May 14, 2025 and received on May 15, 2025. In your email, you appealed from the action of Rashonda Williams, Manager Finance Business Support, on your request under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, for certain Postal Service records regarding refunds for when an item was not delivered according to the applicable service standard. After carefully considering your appeal, we are affirming Ms. Williams' action on your request in full. A decision on this matter is attached to this letter.

This is the final decision of the Postal Service regarding your right of access to records requested pursuant to the FOIA. You may seek judicial review of this decision by bringing suit for that purpose in the United States District Court for the district in which you reside or have a principal place of business, the district in which the records are located, or in the District of Columbia.

The Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) offers mediation services to resolve disputes between FOIA requesters and federal agencies as a non-exclusive alternative to litigation. Using OGIS services does not affect the requester's right to pursue litigation. The contact information for OGIS is as follows:
